

“Identity” (Open Call for Texts)

Dead Line – July 04 2011

Rules and Regulations.

Writers participating in the work should be willing if selected to work with Medea Electronique.

They should agree that their text would be part of a series of texts consisting this play.

Texts can be in any language (Please attach english translation for reviewing purposes) in any form and length.
All texts will be used in their original language.

All rights regarding your text will remain the authors own.

You will be credited for your work in any public performance,

- Printed advertisement material (Posters, Flyers)
- portals on internet (Greek and Foreign).
- In magazines
- In articles and interviews
- Medeas Site
- Everytime the project «Identity» is Re-produced in Greece and Abroad

Your work be sold or published out of the lines of the production “Identity”.

The production will culminate with a series of performances, in Athens, Greece.

Please Note:

- All texts should be royalty free.
- If your text was previously published please make sure to submit a waiver from your publisher.

Please sent all inquiries to info@medeaelectronique.com

